Cape Breton Highlands

Climb to New Heights - The Highlands of Cape Breton are situated on the world renowned Cabot Trail and offer some of the most spectacular coastal scenery and hiking trails in the world. A portion of this significant example of Canada's natural heritage has been designated as a national park. Ten of the eighteen guided hikes featured in this year's festival are within the Cape Breton Highlands National Park!

See the Sights - The Cape Breton Highlands are part of the Appalachian Mountain Range. Enjoy the fresh air, breath-taking landscapes, whale watching, kayaking and Cape Breton Island hospitality with our experience local guides and storytellers.

Enjoy the Nights - Thirsty Hiker Pub specials, opening and closing ceremonies, evening presentations, and live music. For a full listing of activities visit our website - www.hikethehighlandsfestival.com
